REPUBLICAN TICKET GETS BIG MAJORITY IN LEWIS

The entire Republican ticket won out in Lewis county by from between 800 and 1,000 majority, according to a long distance telephone message late last night.

Everything was quiet around the Courthouse yesterday on account of the election.

Mr. Owen Heffernan of Sixth street won the ham given away by the Central Meat Market.

SUFFS WIN

IN NEW YORK BUT LOSE IN OHIO—WETS LEADING IN OHIO BY SMALL MAJORITY.

Massachusetts Names Republican Governor—New Mexico Goes Dry—Both Wets and Drys Are Still Claiming Ohio.

Advices from Columbus late last night was to the effect that estimates at Columbus fixed the dry majority in Ohio at 40,000. Columbus, it was reported, was dry while other large cities were showing decreased wet majorities.

Cincinnati, Ohio, November 6—Shortly before one o'clock the anti-prohibitionists took a slight jump and with 4346 precincts out of 5756, they had a majority of 7,278, the vote being 384,042 for prohibition and 392,320 against prohibition.

The outstanding feature of the elections in the United States yesterday was the apparently assured victory for woman suffrage in New York State by a majority of approximately 40,000. While the suffragists were winning in the East, early returns from Ohio indicate defeat for them in that state.

Two states, Ohio and New Mexico, voted on prohibition. Incomplete returns from Ohio showed that the contest in that state was very close with the drys leading by a small margin. The prohibitionists evidently had carried new Mexico.

The entire Republican state ticket headed by Governor Samuel W. McCall won an overwhelming victory in Massachusetts, while the Democratic state ticket headed by Westmoreland Davis, for governor, was successful in Virginia.

Socialist Gain is 400 Per Cent
Interest in the municipal elections centered upon New York where John F. Hyland, Democrat, defeated Mayor John P. Mitchell, candidate for re-election by a plurality of more than 140,000. The entire Tammany city ticket also was elected. The Socialist vote showed a gain of more than 400 per cent over that cast in the municipal campaign four years ago.

The bi-partisan judicial ticket in Chicago defeated by a plurality estimated at 80,000. Socialist candidates standing on an anti-war platform. The attempt of Senator Penrose backing the so-called Town Meeting candidates to oust the Vane brothers from control in Philadelphia, upon the face of returns up to midnight, appears to have been unnecessary, but at that hour both sides were claiming victory.

William A. Magee, former mayor of Pittsburgh, seemingly was defeated by E. V. Babcock, a wealthy business man. Both are Republicans. Harry L. Davis, Republican, was re-elected mayor of Cleveland. Charles W. Jewett, Republican, was chosen mayor of Indianapolis. By electing George W. Smith, mayor of Louisville, the Republican party in that city scored

Russell Wins Mayoralty Race By Five Votes—Curran Gives Congratulations on Face of Returns, But Will Ask For a Recount

Whitaker, Ort, January, Adair and Harney Other Successful Candidates on the City Ticket—Sewer Bond Issue Defeated

Yesterday's election passed off peacefully although it was one of the hottest held here in many years. In the county election the Republicans led the ticket by electing Addison L. Baldwin for Representative, Harry Purnell for County Judge, Charles E. Galbraith for Sheriff and A. G. Watson for Jailer.

The Democrats captured the rest of the ticket easily and elected J. J.

Owens for County Clerk, George H. Turnipsed for School Superintendent and Stanley Brady for Assessor.

William H. Rees, County Attorney, and Thomas Higgins, Coroner, were also elected by the Democrats, they having no opposition.

The city election was certainly about as warm an affair as one could imagine, the closest race being that between Thomas M. Russell and Harry C. Curran for Mayor, Mr. Russell winning by only five votes. Jeff D. Easton and Andrew Clooney, the other candidates in the Mayoralty race, were far behind these two.

Mr. Curran last night called an Mr. Russell and offered his congratulations on the face of the returns, but announced this morning that he would ask for a recount of the ballots, owing to the fact that the race was so close and that he has information sufficient to warrant a recount. In the race for Police Judge John L. Whitaker ran away with J. Wesley Lee, getting over six times as many votes. Harry A. Ort, former Chief of Police of Maysville came under the wire a winner, defeating James Mackey, the present Chief by 168 votes.

Andrew "Buddie" January ran away with Fred Cablish and Sam McNutt in the race for Collector and Treasurer, getting more votes than both the other candidates. Robert B. Adair is the new City Clerk, defeating George Wood Owens, the present incumbent, and Fred "Brownie" Arn by a safe plurality.

Harry P. Purnell, County Judge.

A. G. Watson, County Jailer.

Robert B. Adair is the new City Clerk, defeating George Wood Owens, the present incumbent, and Fred "Brownie" Arn by a safe plurality.

Walker Harney defeated Charles J. Hauke and Ike Childs in the Assessor's race, his plurality being 111.

The City Council next year will see seven new faces, the new members being J. Allan Dodson in the Second Ward, George Dodson and John Everts in the Third, Thomas Lally in the Fourth, John B. Orr in the Fifth, and Frank Hunsicker and Sherman Arn in the Sixth.

The $100,000 bond issue for the construction of sanitary sewers in the city of Maysville was defeated by a majority of 58, the vote standing 263 "Yes" and 311 "No."

Squire Fred W. Bauer, Democrat, won the race for Magistrate over John D. Kidd, Independent, in the First District by a majority of 133. James McNamara, Democrat, won the race for Constable in the same district over Jesse Ellis, Independent by 79 majority.

The City School Board of Education resulted in all the old members of the Board being defeated by the "green ticket". The new members of the Board are J. H. Samuel and B. H. Greenlee in the Second Ward, Thomtheir first victory in ten years. John Galvin, Republican, was chosen mayor of Cincinnati.

Republicans Wins in Buffalo
George F. Buck, defeated Louis P. Fuhrmann, the incumbent, for mayor of Buffalo. Buck is a Republican. Horan H. Edgerton, Republican, was elected mayor of Rochester, and Walter R. Stone, also Republican, mayor of Syracuse.

Schuyler Merritt, Republican, was elected to congress from Connecticut to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Ebenezer J. Hill, Republican.

Merton E. Lewis, Republican, was re-elected attorney general of New York State.

Republicans Win in Buffalo
New York, November 6—The possibility that "Votes for Women" had become a reality in the Empire State was the outstanding feature of today's state election on the basis of returns received up to 11 p. m. At that hour 2205 election districts out of 5772 in the state showed the following result:

For suffrage, 228,487; against, 210,382.

These returns showed an average plurality of eight votes for suffrage in each of the districts reporting. If this proportion should be maintained by the districts unreported, woman suffrage would be carried by a plurality of more than 40,000.

With almost half the election districts in the state heard from, woman suffrage in New York had a favorable majority over 24,000. This indicates that the measure will be carried by a majority upward of 45,000.

WETS IN LEAD BY 13,275 IN OHIO
As returns continued to come in during the early morning hours the slight majority that had been maintained by the wets since midnight was increased, and with 1,044 precincts missing out of 5,756 in the state, the wets were ahead by 13,275.

This included Hamilton County, complete, the city of Cleveland complete and but 91 precincts missing from the remainder of Cuyahoga county. No returns whatever had been received from either Harrison or Carroll counties, both of which returned majorities for the days in 1914 and 1915. Harrison county gave majorities of 2,850 in 1914 and 2,550 in 1915, and Carroll county returned majorities of approximately 1,500 in 1914 and 1,200 in 1915. The remainder of the precincts to be heard from favored the drys slightly in both campaigns.

DEMOCRATS RETAIN FIRM GRIP ON LEGISLATURE OF KENTUCKY

Louisville, Ky., November 6—Although Republicans have gained several seats over their representation in 1915, Democrats in today's election throughout the state of Kentucky have retained a firm hold upon both branches of the Kentucky Legislature. Late returns, which are not entirely complete, show that the Democrats have 22 State Senators and the Republicans 13, with three races still in doubt.

In the legislative races the Democrats returned 53 winners, Republicans 32, with 15 undecided. It is expected eight of these will go to the Democrats, which would place the Democratic vote in the House at 61 and the Republican, 55.

PROHIBITION ROLLS ON

The city of Washington is now "dry". It is the only national capita lin the world enjoying that distinction. Perhaps "enjoying" isn't exactly the right word; but anyhow, there's no question about the distinction.

And it's a sign, sticking up like the proverbial sore thumb among miscellaneous omens of the time. When the capital banishes alcohol, it's not a local phenomenon. The power that rules Washington, D. C., is the power that governs the United States, the power that is supposed to represent and make effective national opinion.

There's no doubt about it. National sentiment has turned against liquor. King Alcohol has few friends left willing to say a kind word for him. The lately powerful drink traffic no longer commands a respectable following. Public men who formerly kept neutral or angled for the "liquor vote," now align themselves with "their righteous forces of the community." Influential newspapers left drift one by one into the prohibition fold.

Prohibition is a big issue in many states and many cities this fall. We may expect a considerable gain of "dry" territory as a result of Tuesday's election. And we may expect soon a more drastic exercise of the liquor-regulating power conferred on the president, and further anti-liquor legislation by congress.

DISCOVERING THE PENNY

The humble one-cent piece is coming into recognition again. It had practically disappeared from circulation in some sections of the country, and from public respect in every section. Its recent use has been generally restricted to buying newspapers and dropping into slot machines; and that field has narrowed, what with papers raising their rates and the weighing and chewing gum machines demanding a nickel.

But now the poor little old cent comes in handy to buy war stamps. And the man or woman who finds it necessary to pay out an extra penny before she can mail her letter or postcard acquires new respect for the coin.

Respecting our pennies once more, we shall not be above saving them. Nor will we be above paying odd cents for small purchases, instead of reckoning everything in nickels and dimes, according to the pleasant and ruinous practice fostered by retailers. It will seem worth while once more to pay 9 cents or 13 cents for a thing, when copper change can be used to such good advantage. And dealers are beginning to recognize the new situation.

A GOOD SPORT

T. R. is a good sport. Maybe that fact doesn't need mentioning most Americans, whether they're for Teddy or feminist him, have long been given him credit for that quality—but he's given striking, ocular proof of it.

These adjectives are used advisedly. It came out casually just the other day, in the course of some random pugilistic remarks by the ex-president at a physical training resort, that the Colonel can only see out of one eye. The other, it appears, was put permanently out of business in his White House days by a young army officer who acted as his sparring partner.

There's nothing remarkable about Theodore Roosevelt's having his eye knocked out. He's taken enough chances, the Lord knows. But to lose an eye and never say a word about it—just take it as a matter of course, in the day's events—above all, never to let the man who dealt the blow know what he had done, until long years afterward, to save himself from embarrassment—this verily is good sportsmanship.

FOUR THOUSAND TO ONE

Lloyd George reports that since the beginning of the war Great Britain has transported by sea 13,000,000 men, belonging to various parts of her empire, with a loss of only 3,500, and that of these only 2,700 have been lost through "enemy actions."

That means a loss of about one man out of every 4,000 transported. In other words, it means that any man's chances are 4,000 to one that he'll get across the sea safely. It's reassuring to our troops, as they face the voyage to France.

One of the peculiarities of the leather-lunged individual is that he hasn't discovered that it isn't the noise of a boiler shop that makes the boilers.

The trouble with the man who is just now too busy to be kind is that when he's made all the money he wants he'll discover that it is too late.

Convincing Proof of This Fact.

Ridgway, Penn. — "I suffered from female trouble with backache and pain in my side for over seven months so I could not do any of my work. I was treated by three different doctors and was getting discouraged when my sister-in-law told me how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped her. ## Mrs. Lindsey Now Keeps House For Seven.

Tennille, Ga. — "I want to tell you how much I have been benefited by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. About eight years ago I got in such a low state of health I was unable to keep house for three in the family. I had dull, tired, dizzy feelings, cold feet and hands nearly all the time and could scarcely sleep at all. The doctor said I had a severe case of ulceration and without an operation I would always be an invalid, but I told him I wanted to wait awhile. Our druggist advised my husband to get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has entirely cured me. Now I keep house for seven and work in the garden some, too. I am so thankful I got this medicine. I feel as though it saved my life and have recommended it to others and they have been benefited." — Mrs. W. E. LINDSEY, R. R. 3, Tennille, Ga.

"A SPLENDID TONIC"

Says Hixson Lady Who, On Doctor's Advice, Took Cardui And Is Now Well.

Hixson, Tenn.—"About 10 years ago I was..." says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place. "I suffered with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side..."

My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still there.

I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition, so I decided to try some more Cardui, which I did.

This last Cardui which I took made me much better, in fact, cured me. It has been a number of years, still I have no return of this trouble. I feel it was Cardui that cured me, and I recommend it as a splendid female tonic.

Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has so many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardui. Why not you? All druggists.

We have arranged for a series of six interesting articles, "War Talks, by Uncle Dan," written by Mr. Howard H. Gross, president of the Universal Military Training League, of which this is the first. They tell in a graphic way why military training is of value, both to the nation and to the individual, and our readers will find them of unusual interest.

WAR TALKS

By UNCLE DAN

Number One

America Must Fight Hard or Germany May Win—Necessity for Military Training.

"Now, Billie," said his mother, "your Uncle Dan is coming tomorrow to spend a week with us on the farm, and if you want to know about the war, here's your opportunity. Uncle Dan is probably one of the best-informed men in the country." Billie clapped his hands and gave such a whoop that he awakened the baby, but what could you expect of a fifteen-year-old boy who is a living interrogation point and wants to know about war?

Uncle Dan arrived in due time and Billie watched for an opportunity. It came that evening after dinner when Uncle Dan had lighted a cigar and taken a seat on the porch.

"I'm mighty glad you came, Uncle Dan. I want to talk to you about the war. We have just put military training in our township high school, but we had a hard time to do it. The Joneses and the Greggs objected. They said the war wouldn't come over here. Grandma Jones said: 'They ain't no use to worry, it will soon blow over.' Well, we put the training in just the same. You ought to hear Judge Brownell, the president of the school board, do the slackers up. He said unless we take off our coats and go to it, Germany may yet win, and if she does, she will take over the great British fleet as a war trophy and compel us to do what ever she wants to; that she could make us pay all the cost of the war; the Kaiser could tax us as he pleased and that we couldn't help ourselves. He could make every one pay over a part of what he earns; that he could make the farmers pay rent for their own farms, etc. Now, Uncle, what do you think of that?"

"Well, my boy," said Uncle Dan, "all that Judge Brownell says might easily come true and may unless we go quickly to the aid of the allies with large numbers of men and help them break the German line. Unless we can beat the submarines, they may prevent us from getting enough food to the allies to keep them going. In that case Germany would win. As matters stand today, our greatest need is trained men. If we had had several millions of men with military training in our industries and on our farms when the war came, who could have been called at once for service, I do not believe the Kaiser would have forced the war upon us. As it was, he had no respect for us, and now we are in it and must go through with it. But instead of coffee

"There's a Reason"

never again must we be caught so wholly unprepared.

"There is only one safe way," said Uncle Dan, "and that is to adopt permanently universal military training, apply it to every young man who is physically fit, say in his nineteenth or twentieth year. The training can be carried forward in the United States training camps that are now being established for training men called by the selective draft. As soon as these men vacate these stations, they should be filled by younger men, and they should be made the permanent policy of the country."

Billie's mother, Mrs. Graham, had overheard the conversation. She came out and said: "Really, Brother Dan, are you serious as to the dangers of our country? If it is as bad as that, it is high time for us to wake up and do something about it."

"Exactly," replied Uncle Dan. "It is better to wake up now than to be rudely awakened later. We may as well understand, sister, that this is our war and we must win it or God help America. Everything that we have or hope to have—our liberties, our blessings, our opportunities are all involved in the great issue before us. Nothing must stand between us and winning this war. It is a question whether the peoples' right or the Kaiser's might shall dominate the world. If there ever was a holy war, this is it. We are fighting for world liberty. We are fighting for the freedom of humanity. We are fighting for the right of men to govern themselves instead of being governed against their will by a war-mad overlord. Perfection times are ahead of us. We must be prepared to make any sacrifice, to perform any service that may be required of us."

"Oh, Uncle Dan," exclaimed Billie, "may I bring my chum, Jimmie Collins, when we have our next talk? He is a bug on this war business and just crazy to see you."

"Certainly," said Uncle Dan, with a hearty laugh. "If we are to have more talks, I shall be glad to have Jimmie join us."

Billie clapped his hands and ran to the phone and told Jimmie to be over at seven o'clock the next evening.

HYLAN WINS IN NEW YORK

Democratic Candidate For Mayor Has Majority of Approximately 150,000 — Mitchell Runs a Poor Second — Big Socialist Vote a Surprise.

New York, November 6.—John F. Hyland, a county judge of Kings county, was elected mayor of New York today by a plurality of more than 140,000. He carried with him the entire Democratic city ticket, including Charles L. Craig for comptroller, Alfred E. Smith, now sheriff of New York county, for president of the board of aldermen, and Edward Swann, for district attorney.

The indications are that the Democrats will have a majority in the board of estimate which controls the expenditure of the city funds.

Mayor John P. Mitchell, who sought re-election as a Fusion candidate although not formally nominated by any party, was a poor second in the race. His vote in 1,996 districts out of 2,068 in the city was 145,459, compared with 288,435 for Hyland.

Morris Hillquit, the Socialist candidate, about whom almost all of the radical elements in the city and all those who favor an immediately negotiated peace, stood third, with 134,890; and William M. Bennett, who unexpectedly won the Republican primary nomination from Mayor Mitchell, was fourth with 51,856.

The tremendous Socialist vote was the feature of the election. The total polled by that party in the last mayoralty election was only 32,133. This year Hillquit ran a close third to Mayor Mitchell and in many election districts on the East Side, in parts of Harlem and the Bronx, he polled more votes than Mitchell. Hillquit ran on a straight-cut peace platform. He declared a victory for him would be a mandate to the government to negotiate an immediate peace.

Hyland carried all five boroughs of Greater New York. His best showing was in Brooklyn, where Bennett polled a large part of the primary vote which won him the Republican nomination after a recount. It was conceded by the managers of all parties that many of the votes cast for Bennett would have gone to Mitchell if he had been the Republican nominee, but Bennett's total for more than half of the city added to Mitchell's would not have been enough to defeat Hyland.

Had the election been close, the result might have hinged on the votes of the 65,000 soldiers and sailors from this city who are now in government service, but if all of them voted for Mitchell it could not change the result. All the ballots of the men in France, in camps and on board ships will be counted at the same time at Albany seven weeks hence.
